

英検3級 長文読解問題 ③

- (1) Yesterday, William and his wife decided to eat dinner at a new Italian restaurant in their town. William had lasagna, and his wife ate pizza. The food was good, and the staff members were very nice, so William and his wife wanted to tell other people about it. After they got home last night, they wrote a good review of the restaurant online.

Q. What did William and his wife do after they got home?

- 1 They made pizza for dinner.
- 2 They wrote a review about a restaurant.
- 3 They looked online for a restaurant to go to.
- 4 They planned a dinner party for their friends.

- (2) Nancy went to an international food and music festival yesterday. She ate some German sausages and bought some expensive honey from New Zealand. Many bands played at the festival, but Nancy thought the music was too loud. She had planned to stay longer, but because she did not like the music, she left early.

Q. Why did Nancy leave the festival early?

- | | |
|--------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 1 She did not enjoy the music. | 2 She ate too many sausages. |
| 3 The band did not perform. | 4 The food was too expensive. |