

- (1) The famous king Alexander the Great had a beautiful black horse. It is said that the horse loved Alexander very much. In fact, many stories say that the horse would not allow to ride it except for the king himself. Alexander rode his horse in many battles, and it became one of the most famous horses in history.

Q. What do many stories say about the horse of Alexander the Great?

- | | |
|--|--------------------------------------|
| 1 It was afraid of going into battles. | 2 Only Alexander could ride it. |
| 3 Other horses were afraid of it. | 4 It was more famous than Alexander. |

- (2) Martha is in her first year at college. She had many friends in high school, but they all went to different colleges. Martha had been feeling lonely, so she decided to join a volleyball club at her college. She has made many new friends in the club, and they will go to a party together this weekend.

Q. How did Martha make new friends?

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| 1 By going to many parties. | 2 By joining a club at her college. |
| 3 By moving to a different college. | 4 By visiting her high school friend. |